

Player dies during game

A freak accident took the life of 17-year-old Dandenong player Billy Orton last Saturday.

Billy started off at full back against Kellor City Reserves, but was moved into attack later in the game.

With Dandenong down 1-2, Billy darted into the goalmouth to meet a lob and bring the scores level.

While doing so, he collided with the goalkeeper and both crashed to the ground.

In spite of mouth to mouth resuscitation and oxygen, Billy never recovered.

Billy came to Australia with his family about five years ago.

He signed with Dandenong and had played there ever since.

Last year he was voted the club's most improved player.

He had already made 12 senior appearances and club officials said he showed great promise.

Billy was an apprentice brick-layer and attended Dandenong Technical School to study a building course.

Club Treasurer and First Team Manager, Ron Bridge, said Dandenong was shattered by the tragedy.

WATCH PELE

Of all players taking part in the World Cup finals in Mexico City, none has scored more goals than Brazil's immortal Pele, whose total adds up to more than 1000! During Pele's four World Cups, he has scored nine goals.

BIG 'V' FOR WALLACE

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Nineteen-year-old Melbourne linkman John Wallace looks set to become the youngest player ever chosen for the Victorian State team.

Wallace, who became a top class senior player under Melbourne and State coach Zvonimir Rasic this year, showed against South Melbourne Hellas on Sunday that he is the logical choice for the team to meet Werder Bremen at Olympic Park on Sunday.

It is believed that Rasic has been looking for someone to add speed and zest to Victoria's midfield so Wallace looks like wearing the big V for the first time.

It is likely that Hellas linkman David Gorrie will be replaced, which means the three-man link will be Frank Micic, John Wallace and Jimmy Mackay.

Wallace is the most promising local product to emerge in Victoria since Atilla Abonyi and Billy Vojtek were rising through the ranks.

Born in Scotland, Wallace came to Australia with his parents at the age of 12 and immediately joined Melbourne-Hungaria's under 14 team.

After a year in the under 16 side, he stepped into senior ranks at the age of 17.

But he was not a regular senior player until this year.

Playing for a State side will not be new to him. He represented Victoria as an under 16 and has been in the under 23 squad since its reformation early this year.

Wallace's ambition is to play in Scotland. "But I suppose it's a bit late now," he said today.

"I hope to be a top player in Australia and I'd love to represent the country in the next World Cup."

Wallace has not styled his play on any one player.

"I just play my own way," he says.

But he greatly admires Victoria's top linkman, Jimmy Mackay of Croatia.

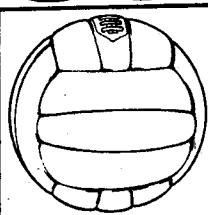

And he's got a lot of respect for Melbourne's new centre half Fabian Juhasz.

"That's one player I really like," said Wallace, "he's really fantastic."

Wallace's team mate, striker Billy Rogers, 21, seems likely to return to the State squad for the game against Werder.

Rogers would replace another Melbourne player, striker Steve Bleskany.

The line-ups

The likely Victorian line-up is:

ZVONIMIR RASIC, 34, coach, took J.U.S.T. to premiership last year, and now has Melbourne in second place.

JACK REILLY, 26, Juventus.

JOHN BARCLAY, 42, team manager, led the national team during its World Cup attempt last year.

DRAGO U. JESENOVIC, 25, Footscray J.U.S.T.

GEORGE KINNELL, 33, Juventus.

SANDY IRVINE, 21, Juventus.

ALISTAIR SCOTT, 29, Melbourne.

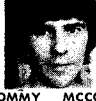

FRANK MICIC, 29, Footscray J.U.S.T.

JOHN WALLACE, 19, Melbourne.

JIMMY MACKAY, 26, Croatia.

TOMMY MCCOLL, 25, Juventus.

BRANKO BULJEVIC, 22, Footscray J.U.S.T.

BILLY VOJTEK, 25, Croatia.

Reserves: LOU KASTNER, 22, goalkeeper, George Cross. JOCK GOODWIN, 27, linkman, Juventus. DAVID GORRIE, 28, linkman, Hellas. BILLY ROGERS, 21, striker, Melbourne. JIM ARMSTRONG, 27, striker, Hellas.

WERDER

Werder Bremen will probably line-up like this: —

Tilkowski quits Werder

Hans Tilkowski, the coach who sparked Werder Bremen's recovery a few months ago, has accepted an offer from Muenchen 1860.

Tilkowski will take over at Muenchen on July 1, after he returns from Australia with Werder. Muenchen, which has been relegated with Alemannia Aachen from the Bundesliga, saw what Tilkowski was able to achieve at Werder and wasted no time in getting his services.

The 34-year-old former German national team goalkeeper, will succeed Franz "Bimbo" Binder. Tilkowski also had discussions with Schwarzweiss Essen but nothing came of them.

Germany's oldest clubs, will be the first Bundesliga team ever to play in Melbourne.

The Victorian team, which Werder will face at Olympic Park on Sunday, has this year drawn 1-1 with Hertha 03-Berlin, lost 0-1 to Rumania B, lost 1-7 to Moscow Dynamo and lost 0-3 to Manchester City.

THE CHOICE OF CHAMPIONS

Supports Soccer why go past?

Schuetz leads star parade

Ole Bjoernmose

Arnold "Pico" Schuetz, Werder Bremen's 35-year-old defender, is one of the most popular soccer stars in Germany.

The oldest professional player in Germany, Schuetz played over 600 games during his 15 years with Werder.

Werder's other players include: GUENTER BERNARD, 30, goalkeeper, played for Germany A six times and was a member of the 1966 World Cup squad. Joined Werder in 1963 from F.C. Schweinfurt.

FRITZ STEFENS, 21, goalkeeper, youngster who reached the senior team only last year.

JOSEF PIONTEK, 30, right back, strong, overlapping full back who has represented Germany six times. Joined Werder in 1960 from Germania-Leer.

DIETER ZEMBSKI, 24, left back, aggressive player and the natural replacement for Werder star Horst Hoettges, who is in Mexico with the German national team.

HEINZ STEINMANN, 32, team captain, sweeper, three times member of the German national team. Joined Werder from Saarbruecken in 1964.

OLE BJOERNMOSE, 26, linkman, joined Werder from Odense, Denmark, in 1966. Has played two full internationals with Denmark.

JOHN DANIELSEN, 31, linkman, capped for Denmark 27 times. A classy matchmaker and skilful ball player. Joined Werder from Odense, Denmark, 1966.

BERND SCHMIDT, 26, linkman or defender, one of the driving forces of the team, Schmidt joined Werder in 1967 from Kassel.

WERNER GOERTS, 28, striker, from Neunkirchen, 1966 and has twice been in the German national team. He covers 100 metres in under 11 seconds and is a dangerous scorer. Scored 15 goals in 1968/69, to trail Mueller (Bayern Muenchen), Sealer (Hamburg) and Skobler (Hamburg 96) on the Bundesliga goalscorers' list.

BERND WINDHAUSEN, 28, striker, joined last year from Kaiserslautern. A consistent scorer, most dangerous in the air.

BERND LORENZ, 21, striker, 12 times selected for the German amateur team. Joined Werder from Hamburg last year and immediately became a first team regular because of his fast, dangerous play.

Arnold "Pico" Schuetz

Mussells, Ristic the men to watch

Promising linkmen Frank Mussells and Mike Ristic will be the men to watch when Victoria's under 16's clash with a combined Technical and High Schools team at Olympic Park on Sunday.

OLLIE NORRIS

Under 14's for Adelaide

The game will be the curtain raiser to Victoria's clash with German Bundesliga club Werder Bremen.

Mussells, of Sunshine City and Ristic, of South Melbourne Hellas, showed during the State team trials at Middle Park last Sunday that they have the potential to reach State League.

Backed by Wilhelmina centre half Bennie de Bruykere, son of Mike de Bruykere, the former Wilhelmina star now coaching Ringwood United, Mussells and Ristic should be able to create enough opportunities to give Victoria a victory.

Impress

Members of the Combined Schools team will be eager to make an impression on State coach Zvonimir Rasic and assistant coach Ian Petherick in order to gain selection to the State squad.

Leading candidates are goalkeeper Chris Guz of Blackburn Tech., linkman Douglas McNinnee and striker Godwin Hill, both of Doveton Tech., which has six boys in the squad.

Guz is a Polonia junior and is being coached by Polonia's senior goalkeeper Miroslaw Litwin.

The combined schools side is the first step in forming a Victorian schools side - probably under 18 - to play against other States and perhaps travel overseas to New Zealand or Asia.

The men behind the schools team are coach Ollie Norris and assistant coach Bob Gough.

Norris played for Northampton, Middlesbrough and Bournemouth in England and with Croatia and Wilhelmina in Melbourne. He also coached Croatia, Hakoah and Footscray J.U.S.T.

As coach of the Victorian under 16 team, he had under him boys like Atilla Abonyi, Mike Olinowski, Henry Surma and George Blank.

Norris works at Jordanville Tech. and Gough is sports co-ordinator at Merrilands High School.

A possible inclusion in the Victorian side is giant linkman and former goalkeeper Chris Stavrou, of South Melbourne Hellas reserves.

Lethal

If he plays, he will help Ristic and Mussells to form a lethal link.

With Manny Spiteri of Sunshine City playing well on the wing for Victoria, the school side will have a lot of defending to do.

But the result is by no means a foregone conclusion.

With McNinnee, Hill and Bill Xanthopoulos of Melbourne High a constant threat up front, it will need only a concentrated effort by the defenders to cause an upset.

The match starts at 1 p.m. The Victorian team is asked to meet at 12.30 p.m. at the Swan Street entrance to Olympic Park and the schools team at 12.45 p.m. at the same place.

WE'RE NOT DEFENSIVE SAYS RASIC

Victorian State coach Zvonimir Rasic today denied that Victoria plays what has been continuously described as defensive soccer.

He said that only twice had he sent out his players with specific orders to defend — against Greece last year and in the first half against Rumania B in January.

"Against Greece I saw the opposition was much too strong for us and against Rumania, before the season started, our players were unfit," Rasic said.

"Yet in that game, it turned out we were more aggressive than they were, so we opened up." "On the whole, I do not believe in defensive soccer. I do not think it can succeed."

"I ask my players to play flexible soccer. I believe in soccer of action, with all players taking part in the game."

"It is up to the defenders to build up the attacks because they can see the game much better. It is easier for them than it is for the strikers, who are marked all the time."

"Our players must switch constantly from defence to attack as the need arises and there must be no sections of defence, link and attack. All must merge into one, smooth flow."

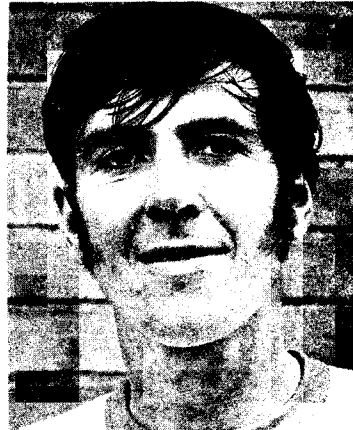

"Yet against top class professionals like Manchester City and Moscow Dynamo, our players find it impossible to transfer from defence into attack as quickly as the fitter opponents."

"It is this class difference rather than the so-called defensive play that costs us games."

"Against Manchester we played this flexible soccer during the first half and we were consequently two goals better."

"In the second half the class difference began to show, with Doyle, Oakes, Pardoe and Heslop building from behind."

JIMMY ARMSTRONG of Hellas makes a comeback to the Victorian squad for the game against Werder Bremen on Sunday.

HAMMY RETURNS

Former Victoria and Croatia forward Hammy McMeechan is back in Melbourne.

McMeechan was transferred for $4500 to Sydney Second Division club Western Suburbs early last year.

He trained with Western Suburbs until two weeks ago and is now trying to get back to Croatia.

But it is unlikely he will succeed.

Croatia secretary Frank Burin said this week: "I doubt that Western Suburbs will offer us reasonable terms. They will want to get their money back." "Instead of paying big money for McMeechan we would rather get new blood from overseas."

Croatia is currently negotiating for two

Croatia players with Second Division experience.

South Melbourne Hellas transfer-listed full-back David Kelly was interested in joining Croatia.

But when Mr. Burin proposed a straight swap with former Scottish international Duncan McKay, Hellas turned it down and demanded cash.

Remember Hammy McMeechan? That's him above when he represented Victoria. Hammy is back in Melbourne and keen to join his old club Croatia.

UNDER-23 SQUAD IS SMART

The Victorian under 23 squad beat Frankston 10-2 in its second practice match at Olympic Park last Wednesday evening.

Switching quickly from defence to attack, Victoria created a flood of goals through Bobby Robertson (Hakoah) 4, Billy Rogers (Melbourne) 2, Ray Pocock (Melbourne), Kevin Walker (George Cross), Wally Klain (Kellor City) and John Wallace (Melbourne).

State coach Zvonimir Rasic said after the match: "If they are given good support from their clubs, and if they attend training regularly, most of these boys will be in the senior State squad within a year."

Rasic is grooming the under 23's to play all-round soccer.

LINKMAN

Ray Pocock, a winger with Melbourne, is being used at right back, and he is handling the new position brilliantly.

Wally Klain, the only Metropolitan League player in the squad, was used as linkman and was impressive.

Because of the absence

Bobby Robertson... a member of the under-23 squad. Bobby plays with Hakoah.

of goalkeepers Mike Harby (Juventus) and Dick Stephens (Hellas), Rasic used Frank Petersen of Elwood Austria.

Peter Selfe (Alexander) did not play, and Robert Bailey and Richard Bens (Wilhelmina) did not show up. So Melbourne star sweeper Fabian Juhasz was used in defence.

Switch paid off

Lou Denys, of St. Albans, is a goalkeeper who scores goals.

Only 20, Denys was until a few weeks ago one of the most promising goalkeepers in the Metropolitan League.

Then one day, a spate of injuries left St. Albans coach Ken Kontra with only one reserve - goalie Brian Ryerson.

So when Matze Landherr was injured and had to go off, Ryerson was the only replacement.

Kontra put him in goal and shifted Denys into attack. Within five minutes, Denys scored a goal and St. Albans lost 1-2.

So now Denys is a forward, but the role is not new to him.

As a junior with St. Albans, he played on the wing and at centre forward before finding his niche in goal.

Meanwhile, utility player Joe Marth, formerly with Lions, has asked for a transfer.

Marth is working on Saturdays, and wants to join District League club North Altona.

It is rumored that forward Carlo Madi is also keen to move to the District League.

South Melbourne Hellas forward Jimmy Pyrgolios (above) is still sitting on the sidelines awaiting a clearance from the Greek Soccer Federation.

Hellas secretary Terry Lillis said today his club was "very annoyed" with the Federation's failure to answer many letters and telegrams.

"Pyrgolios might be just what Hellas needs at the moment," he said, "yet we are not able to play him."

He said that if the Greek Federation continued to ignore Hellas' requests, a temporary permit might be obtained from the Australian Soccer Federation to enable Pyrgolios to play.

DINO'S HAD ENOUGH

Dino De Marchi, the striker who quit Juventus last week, said today he was "fed up".

He said he had been in and out of the Juventus team for the last nine years, and that he'd had enough.

DeMarchi confirmed he would never play for Juventus again.

Soccer News carried the exclusive story about the DeMarchi story last week.

Club secretary Gilbert Martin was quoted as saying that DeMarchi had been told before the game against Croatia that he would be replaced by Keith Webster, who would be used to blanket dangerous linkman Jimmy MacKay.

But DeMarchi says the first he knew of the plan was when coach Gastone Boggi asked him to come off the field.

"I thought I was playing well enough," he said, "but suddenly the coach told me he'd take me off to win the game." "I got fed up and told them I was finished."

"I have asked one committeeman for a transfer and he told me

Dino De Marchi

I'd never get one as long as he had a say."

"I've never caused the club any trouble and I think I've given them a fair go."

"They got me for nothing, so why can't they let me go for nothing?" "If they don't give me a transfer I simply won't play any more."

DeMarchi was only three years old when he was the Juventus mascot.

Now 23, he was an under 16 and under 18 Victorian representative and was top scorer for Juventus in 1966, 1968 and 1969.

WINGER IS ON LOAN

Juventus winger George Little has been loaned to Port Melbourne Slavia until the end of the season.

Slavia, which already sports new men Brian Adlam from Croatia, and full-back Jim Train from England, has an option to buy Little at the end of the season.

Little, 24, played for Kello Rovers in Scotland before coming to Melbourne.

Juventus has also loaned 23-year-old linkman Joe Cattalano to struggling Second Division club Maribyrnong Triestina. Cattalano will be returned at the end of the season.

NSW were 'KILLED'

Manchester City put its superiority beyond doubt when it beat NSW 4-0 in their return match at Sydney Sports Ground on Saturday.

Manchester had scored a narrow 2-1 victory in their first match three weeks ago.

Victoria went down to Manchester 0-3 two weeks ago.

On Sunday, NSW held out until the 40th minute, when Bobby Owen followed up good work by Neil Young and Allan Oakes by calmly steering the ball into the corner of the net.

In the second half, City's fitness and professionalism began to tell and goals from Mike Doyle, Ian Bowyer and Owen, left NSW a well beaten side.

MANFRED MOVES

Manfred Raich, whom Richmond bought from Melbourne early this year, has gone to Brisbane.

Another blow for the newly-promoted First Division club which is now in second last position.

COME BACK

South Melbourne Hellas centre half Andreas Roussis made a comeback against Melbourne on Sunday.

Roussis requested a transfer early this season but has not been able to find another club.

The experienced centre half showed during the game that he still lacks fitness and it may be sometime before he returns to top form.

WIM A WINNER

Wim Spiekermann returned to top form on Saturday, scoring two goals and setting up the other two in Wilhelmina's 4-1 victory over a defenceless Polonia.

The giant striker, who was State League top scorer last season, was well-fed by Mike Pye and David Fygal.

Mike Olinowski, who kept him under guard early in the game, went into attack later, so Spiekermann ran riot.

It was his best game this year.

Steve Atkins, who has been in and out of the Wilhelmina side for a few seasons, was back on the left wing and showed signs of better things to come.

Polonia featured 18-year-old striker Bogdan Anolak, but he found the opposition too tough and was replaced by David Closs at half time.

After Spiekermann had scored in the 20th minute and Henry Siwka had missed an open goal a few minutes later, Polonia's defence fell apart.

Joe Zurawski finally scored Polonia's consolation goal.

SCORES: Spiekermann (20th and 85th, m.), Pye (50), Edgely (55), Zurawski (83).

THE TEAMS: WILHELMINA: van Egmond, Bailey, Ward, Adams, Bens, Pygal, Pye, Bunce, Edgely, Spiekermann, Atkins.

Team manager Hutchinson, coach Edgely.

POLONIA: Linwin, Knot, Zurawski, Czerniecki, Blank, Czapnik, Widera, Olinowski, Anolak (sub. Closs, half time), Siwka, Plaskota.

Team manager Guardiani, coach Kowalec.

Crowd at Jubilee Park about 700.

POOR SHOW

Melbourne defeated South Melbourne Hellas more easily than the score of four goals to one suggests.

This performance must rate as one of the worst,

Hellas have put on in the last decade.

Most of Hellas's play was as confused as the numbering of their players. Kokkinos wore No. 14 and Gorrie No. 12, from the start.

When David Kelly replaced the injured Bedford after 60 minutes, he wore No. 7 and there was no No. 9 on the field.

A poor spectacle for the 2000 crowd, but enough to put Melbourne second on the ladder.

Result: South Melbourne Hellas 1 (Kokkinos pen.), Melbourne 4 (Wallace, Bleskany (penalty) Pocock), own goal Walker.

TEAMS: S.M. Hellas: Stephens, Kyriazis, Rutherford, Bedford, Roussis, Walker, Kokkinos, Armstrong, Gorrie, High and Gould. Kelly replaced Bedford after 60 minutes.

Melbourne: Gerrard, McDaid, Juhasz, Szabo, McGowan, Scott, Kerri, Wallace, Pocock, Rodgers and Bleskany.

Referee - Mr. D. Wootten.

George showed them

George Kinnell killed Footscray J.U.S.T. on Sunday.

By beating striker Branko Buljevic in every duel, the brilliant Juventus defender made Footscray's defence impotent.

Sandy Irvine also won comfortably against Slobodan Zoraja. Pat Della Rocca was unbeatable on the right, never allowing Tommy Stankovic room to move.

Early in the game, Zoraja was the most dangerous forward.

Footscray played into Juventus' hands by continuously playing high balls to Buljevic.

Lett back Rusmir was the only winner for Footscray. He beat Ron Frost by using his experience and he provided a little midfield power when he moved forward.

Scorers: McColl (35th, m.), Salisbury (44), Frost (75).

THE TEAMS: JUVENUS: Reilly, Della Rocca, Kinnell, Irvine, Lakey, Salisbury, Goodwin, Webster, Frost, B. Thomson, McColl. Coach: Lou Brodie.

FOOTSCRAY: Fede, Utjesenovic, Cirkovic, Evans, Rusmir, Micic, Lukic, Mihailovic (sub. Colovic, 67th, m.), Zoraja, Buljevic, Stankovic. Coach: Gastone Boggi.

Will it make it? Melbourne goalie Tommy Gerrard (on the ground) could well be asking this question. Soccer News photographer caught this action shot last week at Middle Park between Hellas and Melbourne.

Croatia slide out

Croatia dropped out of the State League four when they lost 0-1 to George Cross at Olympic Park on Sunday.

Croatia was weakened by the absence of brilliant international linkman Jimmy MacKay, who injured his arm at training.

In addition, international linkman Jimmy MacKay had been celebrating the birth of his new baby the previous evening and didn't last the 90 minutes.

George Cross clinched victory through Kevin Walker.

THE TEAMS: CROATIA: Kovacek, Williams, Gunn, MacArthur, Symington, Reu, Gelemanovic, MacKay, McIntyre, Raiher, Hargreaves.

GEORGE CROSS: Kastner, Kelly, McLachlan, Sanchez, Ricks, Friedberg, Smart, Pryde, Reid, Walker, Epifano.

Ninth World Cup, Mexico City

HOST HELD BY RUSSIA

MEXICO CITY. — Neither Mexico nor Russia showed the skill necessary to progress beyond their group, when they played a dull scoreless draw in the opening round of the ninth World Cup.

It was a foul-ridden match during which four Russians had their names taken during the game, and their most dangerous man, attacking half-back Kakhi Asatiani, was warned twice by West German referee Kurt Tschenschner.

But the Mexicans appeared lucky to escape warnings on many occasions. Herr Tschenschner often appeared to give them the benefit of the doubt. On the other hand he seemed to be ultra hard on the Russians, who, though playing a tough game, were far from dirty.

Russia featured striker Ganadi Yeryuzhikhin, who was in the Moscow Dynamo side that beat Victoria 7-1 in March.

Hooted

Throughout the match, the highly partisan crowd of 108,000 hooted most Russian moves and cheered their own side — even when they made mistakes.

In the second half, Russian trainer Gavril Kachalin brought on Anatoly Puzach in place of right winger Viktor Serebriankov who had a bad first half. The move gave Russia more punch.

Centre-forward Anatoly Byshovets started the Russian offensive with a brilliant run down the middle of the field, but he was brought down on the edge of the area.

The Russians continued to press and Logofet, moving up to join the forwards, had two shots blocked by a packed Mexican defence, which was well marshalled by Pena.

Mexico — Calderon, Pena, Perez, Hernandez, Lopez, Ventoira, Guzman, Pulido, Velarde, Valdivia, Pargoso. Substitutes: Munguia, Padilla, Mota, Gonzalez, Basaguren.

Soviet Union — Kavazashvili, Kaplichnyi, Lovchev, Logofet, Shesternev, Asatiani, Muntyan.

FINALS

1930 (in Uruguay): Uruguay 4, Argentina 2.
1934 (Italy): Italy 2, Czechoslovakia 1.
1938 (France): Italy 4, Hungary 2.
1950 (Brazil): Uruguay 2, Brazil 1.
1954 (Switzerland): West Germany 3, Hungary 2.
1958 (Sweden): Brazil 5, Sweden 2.
1962 (Chile): Brazil 3, Czechoslovakia 1.
1966 (England): England 4, West Germany 2.

Concentration shows on the faces of coach Didi (right) and trainer Heredia as they watch Peru at training.

The winner-Brazil

Brazil will win the 1970 World Cup final from Czechoslovakia.

That's the decision Berlin soccer magazine "Football Week" came to when it judged each of the 16 finalists on the international matches it has played during the first five months of this year.

Busiest country has been Peru, which has played 12 games. Next come Mexico (11), Bulgaria (8), Russia (7) and Brazil (6).

The only country which hasn't played a game is Morocco but it is highly unlikely that Morocco could do well anyway.

Because of the difference in the number of games played by each country, group ladders have been calculated by taking into account where necessary, points for and points against, as well as goal averages.

A defeat counts for two points against and a draw for one.

"Football Week" arrived at these final group tables:

GROUP ONE	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
Mexico	11	5	4	2	17	11	14.8
Russia	7	2	4	1	7	5	8.6
Belgium	1	0	0	1	3	0	2
San Salvi	3	0	3	0	7	0	6
GROUP TWO	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
Sweden	2	1	0	1	3	1	5.1
Italy	2	1	0	1	4	3	5.1
Uruguay	4	2	0	2	7	7	4.4
Israel	4	1	1	2	5	4	3.5
GROUP THREE	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
Brazil	6	4	1	1	10	4	9.3
Czechosl.	3	0	0	3	1	6	0
England	5	2	3	0	7	3	7.3
Rumania	1	1	1	3	3	4	5.5
GROUP FOUR	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
W. Germ.	4	2	1	1	4	4	5.3
Peru	12	4	3	5	19	20	11.3
Bulgaria	8	1	5	2	11	13	7.9
Morocco	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

In the last eight, Mexico would defeat Italy, Brazil would defeat Peru, Sweden would defeat Russia and Czechoslovakia would defeat West Germany.

In the semi-finals, Brazil would beat Mexico and Sweden would lose to Czechoslovakia.

That would leave a final between Brazil and Czechoslovakia, with Brazil emerging as victor.

WORLD CUP SHORTS

Mexico has made certain there will be no repeat of 1966 when the World Cup was stolen in England. Officials have had a substitute cup made. It resembles the Jules Rimet trophy in every way — except it is not made of gold.

In 1958 World Cup in Sweden one country had a psychiatrist in its party. His job — to get the players in the proper frame of mind; to keep them relaxed. After just the second game, the psychiatrist's nerves were so badly shot that he had to take his tranquilisers himself!

In the 1950 World Cup in Rio the United States of America, quoted at 500-1, knocked out England by winning 1-0. Big names in the England side that day were: Tom Finney, Billy Wright, Wilf Mannion, Stan Mortensen and England's manager — Sir Alf Ramsay.

Two former top coaches in Sydney both appeared in World Cup finals. They are Stefan Cambal ex-Prague who appeared for

Morocco in defence

Morocco's trainer — Blagoje Vidinic has said that his team's World Cup tactics "will be based on a strong defence involving all 11 players".

Russia had a World Cup scare recently when it's goalkeeper Rudakov was injured in a match against Millionarios of Colombia. Doctors recommend a total rest for Rudakov and he will miss the early matches in the Mexico finals.

Brazil emerged as favorite to win the 1970 World Cup, in a survey conducted by the Soviet news agency Tass among the coaches of the 16 finalist nations.

Metropolitan round-up — with George Yelland

Elwood Austria and Box Hill opened a two point lead at the head of Division One, as a result of last Saturday's games.

St. Albans gained another point when they played a scoreless draw with Preston Makedonia.

In Second Division Coburg and Ajax drew, allowing Albion Rovers to nip into top spot with a fractional goal average advantage.

Oakleigh Athena lost again and are still pointless. Maribyrnong Triestina, one point better off, are also in serious trouble.

Division Three is proving the tightest competition in the League.

Only two points separate the top five clubs.

Fourth division is a triangular fight between Eltham, Newport and North

Carlton Olympic, who firmly hold the top three positions.

Five games were decided by the odd goal, and the other ended 0-2.

Western Suburbs and Mooroolbark both fell to lowly opposition, and Chelsea, showing their improved form, won again.

BANG! Three in 5 minutes

Heidelberg and Ballarat — the game I saw at Cartledge Reserve, Ivanhoe — was a real crowd pleaser which literally exploded from the kick-off.

Paul Watson struck in the first minute for Heidelberg.

Within five minutes Hugh Ratray put Ballarat ahead with two well taken goals.

It appeared that the final score would reach massive proportions, but both sides settled down and there were no more goals.

Play flowed end to end. Andy Cameron hit the cross-bar for Heidelberg, and a flying header by Donnie Clark, from Alan McGulp's free-kick, was confidently gathered by Miro Perovic in Ballarat's goal.

At the other end Hugh Ratray's terrific low drive was gathered at the second attempt by Ray Serace.

Several swift forays down the right wing came to naught when Colin McCurry shot wide or over the top.

McCurry was fast and crossed a good ball, but could improve his finishing.

Ron Bussendon, Ivan Kurelja, Les Ives and Ratray were outstanding for the visitors.

Jimmy Dale was Heidelberg's best. His positional sense, clean kicking and hard tackling were features of a fine defensive display.

Alan McGulp marred a fine performance when he shot wide from the penalty spot after Kurelja handled.

Ballarat is a well balanced side, but Heidelberg were unlucky to lose outright.

Referee superb

Referee Albert Powers gave a faultless display at the Heidelberg - Ballarat match.

Only four months in Australia, he refused to top amateur leagues in the Greater London area.

His control and interpretation were first class.

The pitch was a disgrace, and reflects great discredit on the Heidelberg City Council, which appears reluctant to do anything to improve conditions for the soccer team which bears the city's name.

The club has spent $400 on floodlighting and a changing room. The council has not even laid water on for the club, and the playing area looks like a ploughed paddock.

On Saturday it was a quagmire.

Both sides deserve full marks for the high standard of play in such terrible conditions.

Soccer families and, indeed, all sporting people in Heidelberg, who believe in "fair go" should show their disapproval at the next council elections at the lack of interest in and support for a club struggling to provide recreation for young people.

Heidelberg runs four junior teams as well.

Chelsea's defence was solid. This team is really going places.

Croydon's defeat of Clayton was a shock to the visitors, for with only 20 minutes to go, they led 2-0 and looked set for their second win of the season.

Mick Davis (15 minutes) and Tony Wordley (25 minutes) had given Clayton a great start.

In the 70th minute Alistair Giffen converted a penalty for Croydon.

Clayton collapsed, and goals from Neil Manthorpe after 75 and 85 minutes gave Croydon two points that never seemed possible for three quarters of the game.

St. Kilda's experienced men organised a defensive wall which kept Western Suburbs to one goal.

New men John Payne at centre half and Billy McIvor in attack spurred on St. Kilda. McIvor slammed home a beauty on the turn to give Kilda a 1-0 half-time lead.

Western Sub equalised after 30 minutes through Demetrios Kyriakides, but five minutes from time Tony Rick collected a loose ball, beat two defenders and raced through to score the winner.

Dangerman George Maykousis was blanketed out of the game which developed as Western Suburbs attack against St. Kilda's defence.

PRAHRAN SURPRISE ALTONA

Prahran surprised Altona in a hard fought game at Millers Road. Altona attacked from the start. Bill Savage, Ray King and Van Ypren all had shots saved by Fred Shull, who was outstanding in Prahran's goal.

Exchanges were even as half-time approached. With only a minute to go Graham Clamp disposed of Omerod, and gave the visitors an interval lead.

Within five minutes of the resumption Jimmy Ackers made it one all. Prahran improved and were dangerous when they broke away.

A move started by Zoran Levrevic went via Steve Freund and Graham Clamp to Peter Evans, who put Prahran ahead again.

Five minutes later a similar move led to a third goal when Freund rammed it in.

In the 80th minute, Chris Karamatos hit a long ball up the middle. Van Ypren dummied and Shull missed it. The ball bounced on-into the net.

Leveravich, Colin Seedy and Bill Ratcliffe were in top form for Prahran.

Ray King, Jimmy Ackers and Roberts in goal, served Altona well.

Marathon

On Sunday Altona resumed their Dockerty Cup marathon with Box Hill, at Wembley Park.

A good crowd saw thrill a minute cup-tie soccer for another two hours.

The only things missing were goals.

Bill Savage hurt his shoulder and was replaced after only 15 minutes by Billy Coles.

Ian Hynds, ankle injury, and Craig Copley, dislocated arm, were absent from the Altona line-up.

Stuart Culbard and Jimmy Allen were first class substitutes.

It was another tremendous contest and it is hoped to arrange the second replay at Olympic Park next week.

It will be another beauty, and should draw a big crowd.

Box Hill disposed of Springvale more easily than the score indicates.

Springvale had been reshuffled.

In a strange move, three defenders were named in the attack.

It didn't pay off, and their scoring efforts were few and far between.

A goal in each half by Jimmy Coles gave Box Hill the points.

Aldo Cornin, in goal, gave another fine performance for the visitors.

Box Hill were well served by John Brown, Tommy McPherson and Coles.

Richmond's old trouble robbed them of victory again.

Their general standard of play was far superior to Ringwood, but their finishing was woeful.

Ringwood converted a penalty for hands in the eighth minute.

Six minutes later Manny Kuhn equalised with a penalty for a similar offence.

Harry Selheim was outstanding for Richmond. It was tragic that his only mistake let Ringwood in for their second goal.

Another mistake - this time Wally Sobek miskicked - gave Ringwood a 3-1 interval lead.

Four minutes into the second half Manny Kuhn raced down the wing, crossing a perfect ball for Stefan Pest to reduce the leeway.

From that point it was all Richmond, but the forwards finished badly.

Selheim and Horst Dress, who took over in goal for the second half, were Richmond's best.

Impregnable

Preston Makedonia found the St. Albans defence impregnable, and had to be content with a scoreless draw.

St. Albans still lack a goal scoring forward. Two goals in seven games is catastrophic.

Sunshine City extended Elwood Austria, who were rather fortunate to score the winner in the dying minutes of the game.

Horst Zielinski

Sunshine were on top in the first half. Kazi Petrowski gave them the lead after 15 minutes.

First team men Micky Bannigan and George Fontana were out, injured, and Robert Melrose played his first game with the seniors.

He only lasted ten minutes, then was replaced by 15 years old Frankie Mussels, as he was taken off injured.

Horst Zielinski came on for Austria in the second half and played a blinder.

He equalised after 75 mins. and laid on the winner, two minutes from the end.

Sunshine are still hoping for a full side. They have suffered a lot through injury and work absence this season.

Runaway win for Moreland

Moreland had a runaway win at Triestina's expense, and Albion Rovers and Brighton had overwhelming 4-0 victories in Second division.

Jimmy Melrose put Albion on the winning track with two first half goals.

In the second half, Hugh Rafferty, best man on the ground, scored a beauty with a 30 yard lob shot.

Athens were reduced to ten men when a defender was dismissed for serious foul play.

Late in the game, Ron Stevenson, playing his first game since returning from Scotland, scored Albion's fourth.

Match of the day in Second Division was the Coburg - Ajax clash.

A 1-1 draw was a fair result.

Ajax got away to a great start, springing after two minutes.

Coburg settled down and Graham Watson levelled matters with a fine header from George Malcolm's centre.

Young Sammy Loughran and George Malcolm both hit the woodwork, and Coburg might consider themselves unlucky to drop a point.

Ajax fought for the full 90 minutes. They are a team which never gives up.

Arthur Bolton was injured, and had to be replaced by Ron Taylor.

For Coburg, Sam Crooks in goal, John Yelland, George Malcolm and Graham Watson were outstanding in a side which showed more determination than the previous week.

May was a month for happy events, up Coburg way.

Arthur Bolton's wife, Sheila, presented him with a daughter.

Sheila is Secretary of the Coburg United S.C. Ladies Social Club.

Last week Coburg's goalkeeper Sam Crooks became the second Coburg father of the month when his wife Josephine, gave birth to a son.

Frankston's slump continues. The team is playing in a disappointed and spiritless manner.

The first half was all Waverley. They kept Frankston under continuous pressure.

The visitor's only scoring effort, in this period was a shot by Brian Finch which flashed past the post.

In spite of superior speed and territorial advantage Waverley's goals both came from penalty kicks, the first for hand ball and the second for pushing.

In between, Frankston's one bright effort came from a long ball down the wing, which Jimmy Brown squared for Alan Parrot to head in.

Frankston showed fight in the last ten minutes; Billy Huston and Finch hit the woodwork, but Waverley hung on to take both points.

Sandringham continued their improved form when they narrowly defeated a lively Hercules.

Shock win

In third division Park Rangers shocked Mooroolbark at Middle Park.

New signing Jimmy Walker, from Belfast, Ireland, took a pass from Jeff Burnard in the sixth minute to give Rangers the lead.

Eleven minutes later Alan Irving converted a penalty for hands to equalise for Mooroolbark.

In an all out attack John Clemie collected the ball on the edge of the penalty area to crack home a great goal.

Minutes later another shot by Clemie was well saved, and then Mooroolbark got on top.

Rangers fought grimly in the second half, and hung on to win.

Mooroolbark were indecisive in most of their mid-field work.

Neil Robertson, Ted Eldred, Bert Wheeler and Walker were best for Rangers.

Fernree Gully took disciplinary measures with players who don't like training. Five reserves were included in the team against Bayswater, and they won 2-1.

Chelsea continued their upward movement by convincingly defeating East Melbourne Helvetic by two clear goals.

Nil, nil at half-time was followed by Heavy Chelsea pressure in the second half.

In 65 minutes, Vic Finley notched the first goal, following Robbie Dale's corner kick.

Ten minutes later Jackie Ogilvie headed a beauty to make it 2-0.

Chelsea's defence was solid. This team is really going places.

Croydon's defeat of Clayton was a shock to the visitors, for with only 20 minutes to go, they led 2-0 and looked set for their second win of the season.

Mick Davis (15 minutes) and Tony Wordley (25 minutes) had given Clayton a great start.

BALLARAT, GEELONG AND DISTRICTS ASSOCIATION

GEELONG and GEELONG CITY, top two in first division, crashed last week-end allowing BALLARAT UNITED to jump the head of the ladder. Timkens are having serious troubles. Once again they failed to field a team in second division, and their first division side was slaughtered by Marnly Rangers.

In division two, North Geelong came a cropper at home and relinquished leadership to Geelong City.

In the under 17 League Corio proved that they are out of their class by massacring Bell Park and extending their run to eight successive victories.

North-East League

As predicted, the North Eastern top four had clear cut wins and Benalla pipped Deniliquin.

Whorouly 6 King Valley 2. Reserves 0-0. No Junior Game.

There were no surprises, and the battle for League honors has developed into a four cornered contest between Whorouly, Cobram, Myrtleford and Shepparton.

Shepparton 1. Reserves w-o to Shepparton. Juniors 0-3. Cobram 5 Albury 1. Reserves 4-0. Juniors 5-0. Seymour 1 Milawa 2. Reserves 2-9. Juniors w-o to Shepparton.

Taffy's Tips for the

POOLS

For the second week running it'll be a near record divvy for first prize winners in the Treble Chance Pools run on last Saturday.

There were only NINE scoring Draws and THREE scoreless ones, and with a full program of matches played — no postponed games — the minor dividends will be much larger than the previous week.

Break-up of the Draws was two in Queensland, five in Victoria, three in New South Wales, and two in Western Australia.

There were two pairs on the lists which may be a little help to the Perm. punters, but with one of them score-less, they may be handy for a minor dividend, otherwise they were well spread out over the coupons.

Following requests here are the match numbers of the draws as they appeared on the coupons' lists, scoring: 7, 13, 18, 32, 37, 38, 42, 49, 52, and the score-less: 4, 15, 33.

Balance of the matches on the coupons was 18 Aways and 25 Home winners.

Although there were four more Home winners than the previous week the Golden Homes Pools' punters with a winning line of eight three pointers - Home teams winning by three or more goals - can also expect larger dividends because there was one less on Saturday.

Three point scoring Home teams on the

It's really amazing out of all the millions of entries in the Vernons Treble Chance, not one Pools' punter struck what would have been a record jackpot with a line of maximum 24 points.

For NEXT SATURDAY WEEK, JUNE 13, note the day, but whether you're superstitious or not, always remember a team playing on their own ground, if they're good, should be worth a goal start at least, and when weighing up the pros and cons for your selections that is a good rule.

Another thing to watch is the attacking forwards who have a good defence behind them, almost a complete team. A good example of this was on Sunday when Juventus beat Footscray J.U.S.T. 3-0. It was a good game of soccer, Juventus put on a fine display, the best for many a day, and remember J.U.S.T. had won their previous five games in grand style having scored 17 goals to five, also playing on their home ground.

To a tipster this game would have been a Home win or a draw. Sometimes form is hard to follow, otherwise, there'd be no pools.

So now the following should have good home wins next Saturday week, try them in your Golden Homes Pool: Peloua (N.S.W.), Taringa (Q.), 0 correct, £24-0; Three Draws: 24-0.

FOUR AWAYS.

East (Q.), Alexander, Hercules, Doncaster Rovers, Budapest (S.A.), Cracovia (Tas.).

THREE DRAWS.

Willowburn v. Budapest (Q.), Moreland v. Sandringham, South Yarra v. Corio.

And now for the big money with those elusive eight draws, about the following.

TREBLE CHANCE.

Charlestown v. Merewether (N.S.W.), Mitchelton v. Germania (Q.), South Coast v. G.A.P. (Q.), Willowburn v. Budapest (Q.), South Melb-Hellas v. Lions, St. Albans v. Frankston, Moreland v. Sandringham, South Yarra v. Corio, Cumberland v. Eastern (S.A.), Salisbury v. Elizabeth (S.A.), Kiev v. Tricolore (W.A.), Dalmatinac v. Stirling (W.A.), Midland v. Maccabi (W.A.), Olympia v. Juventus (Tas.).

Black print indicates best selections. And now it's Good Luck Pools' Punters, I do hope I have helped in some little way to crack some Pools divvies your way. TAFFY.

Croatia was minus Billy Vojtek, who sustained an arm injury at training. A leg injury kept John Gardiner out of the Cross.

District League Round-up

KINGSVILLE HANG ON

By RICK LAVALE

KINGSVILLE moved to a one-point lead at the top of the Premier Division last Sunday by defeating ARDEER. FITZROY remain in second position.

Kingsville got away to a good start when Ilo scored after only 5 minutes.

The second half saw Kingsville gradually get on top with teamwork and clever positional play. After 60 minutes play, Lambvesky broke through the middle to slam in the winner. Best players for Ardeer were S. Mienka, C. Ciempiel and J. Potzynski. Outstanding for Kingsville were Cele and Ilo.

Yarraville held Fitzroy to a 2-2 draw when Jim Thom found the back of the net in the second half. George Meletis had been on target for Yarraville, while Ferrovan and Marrota scored for Fitzroy.

At Main Road Reserve, 200 fans saw Chadstone produce their best form of the season to crush Hawkesburn United 4-0. With seven positional changes and two new faces in John Law and Wayne Lockwood in the line-up, a rejuvenated Chadstone showed teamwork and backing-up which had been missing for many weeks. Fawknor provided the shock of the round by winning their first league game at the expense of highly placed Frankston Pines. Pines took a lucky lead mid-way through the first half.

Fawknor's winning goal was a beauty! Right winger Mario Pesa crossed a ball to top scorer Vic Dell'Olio who brought it under control smartly, evaded two defenders and slipped the ball into the net.

Langwarrin are the surprise packet of the league and were far too good for Pascoe Vale, winning 4-1. Goals from George Sutton 2, Derek Wilson and Hank Brouwer shattered Pascoe Vale.

The bottom of the ladder clash between Melton and St. Leo's North Altona resulted in Melton's second successive win when Paddy Docherty scored the only goal of the game. Best man on the ground was right-half Jimmy McPhail.

EASTERN DIVISION

League leaders Windsor and Doveton both won.

Doveton visited Cheltenham without Martin Jones, who injured a foot, but still ran out 6-3 winners with goals from John Bredon 2, Dave Wilkinson 2, Steve Lyon and Roger Hamell.

Toorak almost tossed top-dogs Windsor in a closely contested game, but wasted chances towards the end enabled Windsor to hold onto a 3-2 lead.

An administrative mix-up by South Dandenong led to their non-appearance at Balcombe

In a defensive game, Burnley defeated Monash 2-0 with goals from Gomez and a John Tato penalty. Best players for Burnley were Willi and Ramos.

CENTRAL DIVISION

East Carlton inflicted Regent's first loss of the season by defeating the league leaders 3-2. Two great goals from right winger Baldassarri and a further goal from his counterpart on the left, Barrasso, jolted Regent who were never allowed to get into their stride.

Kew brushed Diamond Creek aside winning 6-1. Kew scored through V. Speljak 2, D. Jaenkovic and I. Delic. The Creek had held their own until the interval when the score was 1-1.

Diamond Creek's B team did well against Reservoir before going down 2-0, with 18 year old local boy Ian McEwan showing clever touches.

After a disciplinary hearing, East Brunswick are now required to have a policeman in attendance at all home games following the invasion of their ground by spectators in a recent league match.

Carlton Serbia held firm under tremendous pressure to keep out the Royal Park forwards in the dying stages to earn a 1-1 draw.

WESTERN DIVISION

West Melbourne downed Williamstown Inter 5-2 to open up a two-point lead at the top of the table.

Ascot United moved into second place by defeating Laverton 3-1. Elsternwick beat North Sunshine United 3-2, but were again unimpressive. Ivanov 2 and Adric scored the goals.

Garden City scored at will against Laverton B to cruise home with a 8-0 win. Tsatsakos 4, Dimakos 2, Kalluyros and McCordale chalked up the winning score.

Central Altona were untroubled in defeating a game Werribee 4-1.

Frank Bot (Croatia) tangles with Frank Barbazza (Juventus) in a State League match.

TOP SIDE COMING HERE

Enver Begovic, State League Chairman and member of the V.S.F. Board of Management, left Melbourne today on a trip to Europe and Mexico.

He will visit Germany, Italy and Yugoslavia. In Mexico he will see the final stages of the World Cup.

Enver will make final arrangements for the visit to Australia, next January, of the top Yugoslav club, Dinamo Zagreb.

He will also be trying to arrange a visit by another top overseas club.

Enver is concerned about the state of the game and its administration here.

CONCERNED

"This great game is sick in Victoria. I am greatly concerned about its future and the future of our State League," he said.

"I shall visit as many Soccer haunts as I can, hoping to get ideas for curing our ills."

He believes that to infuse new life into the game we must examine the possibility of a new style competition.

BOT KEEN TO COACH

Croatia's veteran full-back Frank Bot has decided to call it a day.

Bot, 34, has said goodbye to Croatia and may take a coaching job in the Metropolitan League.

An approach has already been made by Preston Makedonia, but when Soccer News went to press, no decision had been reached.

During his nine-year career with Croatia, Bot has become one of Victoria's most well-known players.

Last year he shocked the soccer world by making a comeback after a broken leg had put him out of the game for about 16 weeks.

VALUABLE

Croatia secretary Frank Burin said this week: "Frank has given us valuable service during his long career and we are all very sorry to lose him."
